transportation

Efficient public transit, miles of bike lanes and short, pedestrian-friendly city blocks make navigating Portland a breeze. The MAX Light Rail system runs directly from Portland International Airport to downtown and the convention center. Add in a modern streetcar, accessible bike-sharing and walkable bridges, and you’ll find you don’t need a car when visiting Portland.

With a sprawling urban forest, dozens of public parks, gorgeous gardens and a sparkling river running through the middle of the city, you’ll never run out of ways to enjoy the outdoors in Portland. Whether you’re a fan of flowers, an avid hiker or just looking to get some fresh air, Portland has something for every kind of outdoor enthusiast.

food & drink

From food carts to year-round farmers’ markets and award-winning restaurants, Portland is a culinary haven for foodies of all flavors. Chefs make the most of the fertile farmland that surrounds the city, often letting the week’s market haul dictate their menus. That dedication to local ingredients also prevails at Portland’s 70 microbreweries, as well as our urban wineries, distilleries and coffee roasters.

neighborhoods

Many of Portland’s best places to eat, drink, shop and hang out like locals are found beyond the central city scope of this map. For a true Portland experience, get out into the neighborhoods! Some favorites include Mississippi, Williams and St. Johns (North Portland); Alberta Arts District, Hollywood and Cully (Northeast); and Hawthorne, Division/Clinton and the Jade District (Southeast).

the region

Portland is the perfect launchpad for adventure, with the rugged Oregon Coast, snow-capped Mount Hood, lush wine country and waterfall-filled Columbia River Gorge all within easy driving distance.

shopping & makers

With no sales tax in sight, Portland is a shopper’s paradise. Explore the city’s vibrant maker scene and take home a made-in-Portland souvenir, go treasure hunting at one of our many thrift stores or vintage clothing shops, or spruce up your style with iconic Portland-based brands like Nike, Columbia, Pendleton and Damen.
